Very Special Events - During Our Fall Sale Week!

Saturday, Oct. 4 Skål – A Toast to the Day

9:00 to 5:00

Meet Frank Vinson, local artist and maker of fine drinking horns and knives.

1:30

Spirit Vinson will give a short talk about the ancient drinking horn.

2:00

Mike McCarron, creator of locally-made Gamle Ode Aquavit, will tell us all about the "water of life", its many traditions, and how to incorporate it into your own. Since its centuries-old medicinal beginnings it has become part of many Scandinavian celebrations in a big, enjoyable way!

10:00 to 1:00

Dave Paulson stops by to offer expert, reasonably-priced knife and scissors sharpening while you wait.

A Special Sale on skål-related items
- glasses, corkscrews, decanters,
glögg servers, and more!

1:00 to 2:00

Lefse Dogs will be served - only $1!

11:00 to 2:00

Enjoy a sip of glögg

Monday, Oct. 6

9:00 to 1:00

Lois Mueller brings her lovely jewelry made from Nordic stones (thulite, sodalite, larvikite and more), and gives us a rosemaling demonstration as well!

1:00 to 2:00

A taste of waffles, freshly made with an assortment of toppings.

Waffle irons on Sale Today.

Check our website for late breaking additions and changes to our event schedule! ingebretsens.com

Tuesday, Oct. 7

10:00 to 2:00

George Lokken brings a great selection of knives from Finland, Norway and Sweden.

1:00 to 4:00

Jeff Hawthorne represents the fine Scandinavian companies of iittala, Royal Copenhagen, Orrefors and Kosta Boda. He'll come with new products, interesting info, special discounts and door prizes!

12:00 to 3:00

Katherine Kennedy demonstrates Swedish (Huck) weaving, with a selection of her kits for sale.

1:00 to 2:00

Throughout the afternoon Needlework Day

A group of talented needleworkers will demonstrate their areas of expertise: knitting, lace knitting, spinning, hardanger, and bobbin lace. You may be inspired to take a class!

Thursday, Oct. 9 Leif Eriksson Day

10:00 to 12:00

Julie Steller of Steller Handcrafted Goods makes beautiful mittens and purses from repurposed knitted garments.

11:00

Trolls and More... by Kittelsen!

Popular presenter Mary Jo Thorsheim of Norway Art will lead a discussion about Norway's popular artist of trolls, folklore, myths, and more. Theodor Kittelsen brought trolls from his imagination to life. He depicted these supernatural creatures in believable settings and situations. He showed them at their humorous, ugly -- yet utterly charming -- best!

2:00

Janey Westin and Robert G. Johnson, authors of The Last Kings of Norse America, Runestone Keys to a Lost Empire. Did the Norsemen truly visit Minnesota? The authors will speak on the historical background of an expedition sent to North America, decreed in 1354 by King Magnus of Norway and Sweden, in an attempt to restore the lost fur and goods trade. Keys to this research are the authors' complete and rigorous translations of the Kensington and Spirit Pond runestones.

Special Sale on all Viking-themed items, today only.

1:00 to 2:00

Rune cookies sampling

We hope you can join us!

Sale Week Events continued...

Friday, Oct. 10

2:00 to 4:00

Local candle maker Rare Earth will talk about their gorgeous natural candles of soy wax and essential oils.

All of our candles will be 15% off today only!

1:00 or 2:15

You have to have a good sense of humor when you're the president of the world's largest lutefisk company, and Chris Dorff can handle all the silly jokes that come his way. Olsen Fish Company has been importing and processing Norwegian lutefisk and herring since 1910. Come for a fun, informative time, and who knows, maybe you'll leave with some affection for these much-maligned fish. Samples for the daring! RSVP and we'll save you a seat: 612-729-9333

We're a class act here at Ingebretsen's Scandinavian Gifts

Hardanger, lefse, woodcarving... we have workshops for all the traditional crafts plus a few fun classes like Making a Troll Mask or Tomten Sandwiches thrown in for variety. We even have some classes especially designed for people who already know what they're doing, but just need a little help on a project. So learn something new or polish up an old skill and join us.

Remember we also have class gift certificates.
Check our website often. We frequently add classes as opportunities arise and you don't want to miss out! ingebretsens.com
