

BETHANY HOUSEWARES

Bethany began over 60 years ago in Minneapolis, MN as a production company at which students at Bethany Fellowship could work to pay their tuition. In 1987 it was purchased and moved to Cresco, Iowa. Owner Roxie Svoboda worked along side her father for many years and gradually became his business partner as he reached retirement. Selling to stores across the US and Canada, their products help to keep Scandinavian cooking traditions alive.

JACK BLOM

a native of Eau Claire and resident of Rice Lake, WI, is a life-long woodworker and retired art teacher. Leise making (and eating) plays an important role at family holiday gatherings, with Jack's handmade turning sticks adding a special touch to the baking routine. His handles are made from various hardwoods. Jack's Leise Stick 31719 $20

ARNE HANSEN

Arne came to the US from Denmark in the 1960's and found his way into the restaurant business in Solvang, CA. With his interest in Danish traditions he promoted æbleskiver, a pancake-like pastry, in his restaurant. Over the years he began selling the equipment for making them. His recently developed Electric Æbleskiver Maker helps keep this tasty tradition alive and well. 40472 $79 was established in 2008 by sisters Lisa Timek and Linda Engwall along with Sarah Engwall and Chad Gillard to share their love of this Danish pastry and Aunt Else's wonderful recipe with the world. They designed a cast iron pan which is made right here in Minneapolis. Their mixes contain organic wheat flour and buttermilk.

AUNT ELSE'S ÆBLESKIVER

L O K S T A D

In about 1950 John Lokstad made a nice wood rolling pin for a neighbor. She loved it and bragged about it so much that he had to make more for her friends, and then he thought "this should be a business!" For 60 years the Lokstads, now joined by younger members of the family, have made hard maple rolling pins in their shop in Northern Minnesota.

The pins are all wood, no metal parts, and have a lifetime guarantee.
