Our Story

From our founding in 1921 by Charlie Ingebretsen, an immigrant from Norway, to the 2nd, 3rd, and now 4th generations of the Ingebretsen and Dahl families, we are proud to be a mainstay on Minneapolis' East Lake Street, still a vibrant neighborhood where new immigrants come to make a start. We strive to be a place that fosters an appreciation for our cultural heritage by tending to traditions, and offering exceptional service and uniquely wonderful products.

As we celebrate our 96th year in our Lake Street home, we are so thankful to our wonderful staff and especially to you, our customers who've come for generations, and those new to the fold. Visit soon... in store or online!

Come see us in Stockholm, Wisconsin, too! The picturesque village on the shores of Lake Pepin is known for its unique shopping and great food. On the Great River Road (voted "the prettiest in the country"), it's an easy drive from the Twin Cities.

Our latest adventure is Also Ingebretsen's gift shop and coffee cafe at Norway House (featuring amazing waffles!) at 919 East Franklin in Mpls - a new meeting space for Norwegian-Americans and also home to a fantastic art gallery.

We've Got Classes - and lectures, book signings, and special events. Join us as we explore our culture in fun and fascinating ways! Visit ingebretsens.com for schedules.
