

FALL EVENTS 2018

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20

LUTEFISK & LEFSE DAY

Celebrate our most iconic foods! Join us for lutefisk and lefse tasting from 11:00 to 1:00.

COD FISHING IN THE 1850s LOFOTEN ISLANDS

10AM-4PM

Dick Enstad will be here with his fascinating new display! It tells the story of the farmer fishermen who would return to the Lofotens every winter when the cod were running. Many products were made from the cod, lutefisk being one of them.

NANCY ENSTAD LUCET DEMO

10AM-4PM

Learn how to use a lucet, the wooden tool used to make small square cordage that dates back to the Viking Age.

Demonstration of this beautiful Norwegian art form with award-winning Shirley Evenstad.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 22

TRINE HAHNEMANN

BOOK SIGNING

1-3PM

Trine Hahnemann, Danish chef, cookbook author, and leader of the Nordic Cuisine movement, will be here to sign her latest work, Copenhagen Food. A warm and personal book, Trine takes readers on a tour of her home city, sharing stories and recipes from its many fascinating neighborhoods.

Book signing from 1 to 3 at the main store, 1601 E. Lake Street

AUTHOR TALK AND FOOD DEMO:
6:30 TO 8:00PM at Norway House
913 E. Franklin Avenue

OCTOBER 24, 25, 26

EMPLOYEE'S FLEA MARKET

9AM-5PM

This sale of vintage Scandinavian goods is packed like Grandma's attic. Ingebretsen's employees gather up wonderful things from their homes for this sale that is full of surprises and bargains. New items are added each day.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27

STELLER HANDCRAFTED GOODS TRUNK SHOW

1-4PM

We've happily carried Julie Steller's up-cycled wool mittens and hats for a long time. Join Julie as she brings more of her products to share - new this year are Swedish braid-trimmed denim jackets.

WOODCARVING WITH JOCK HOLMAN

9AM-4PM

Jock is a master of many carving techniques, from acanthus style and dragons to flat-plane figures. Come watch him demonstrate!

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3

WOODWORKERS DEMONSTRATIONS

11AM-3PM

Fred Livesay and Tom Dengler carve spoons, bowls and boxes, and Jim Ayers creates birds with fan carving.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10

LILLUNN TRUNK SHOW

1-4PM

Lillunn of Norway is a wonderful new line of coats and jackets, blankets and shawls, all made in Norway of warm, soft wool in richly colored plaids, tweeds, and patterns. Special prices today!

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16

JOLLY TROLL

10AM-4PM

Troll Encounters of the Jolly Kind - Part 2! Remember the Jolly Troll, one of the first (1960s) Swedish smörgåsbord buffets in town? Visit those memories or discover what this truly iconic restaurant was about with Carole Jean Anderson, daughter of the founders. Back again after her super-popular appearance last year, she'll bring more stories, music, pictures, and recipes, plus food tastings from special guest Patrice Johnson, author of 'Jul' Swedish American Christmas Traditions. And don't be surprised if a special visitor or some of the jolly, animated trolls that inhabited the restaurants actually drop by! From 10 to 4, with talks at 11 and 1. A jolly time will be had by all!

OCTOBER - DECEMBER

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17

VIKING BATTALION

10:30AM

The men of the Viking Battalion stood at the intersection of Norwegian and American history. A thousand Norwegian and Norwegian-American men were formed into the 99th Infantry Battalion, who intensely trained for an invasion of German-occupied Norway in WWII and served in Europe. They were the Guard of Honor for King Haakon VII's triumphant return to Oslo in June 1945. Members of the 99th Infantry Battalion Educational Foundation, dedicated to preserving their story, will be here for a fascinating presentation about this little known piece of history.

NORDIC DOLL COSTUMES

11AM-3PM

Perennial favorite Debbie Gustafson is here with her beautifully detailed Nordic folk costumes for 18" dolls.
