Our Story

From our founding in 1921 by Charlie Ingebretsen, an immigrant from Norway, to the 2nd, 3rd, and now 4th generations of the Ingebretsen and Dahl families, we are proud to be a mainstay on Minneapolis' East Lake Street, still a vibrant neighborhood where new immigrants come to make a start. We strive always to be a place that fosters an understanding of and appreciation for our cultural heritage, by offering great service and excellent products.

We are so thankful to our wonderful staff, and especially to you, our many and loyal customers. We hope you can visit soon!

Visit us in Stockholm, Wisconsin too!

Stockholm is a tiny village known and loved for its unique shopping and great food. On the shores of Lake Pepin, it's less than 2 hours from the Twin Cities.

And visit too our newest adventure,

Also Ingebretsen's gift shop and coffee cafe at Norway House, just a few blocks away at 919 East Franklin - a new meeting space for Norwegian-Americans and also home to a wonderful art gallery!

We've Got Classes

- and lectures, events, book signings – join us as we explore our culture in fun and fascinating ways! Call or check our website for schedules.
